

It is my desire to maintain the least possible government regulation of my VOIP phone line so that I am able to keep the cost down. I beleive that a "Strong" notification about "911 services" or lack there of, is all that is needed. Please take no action that would erode the basic's of VOIP. Thank you.